

FIGHTING JAP VISIONS AMERICA

General Kuroki, Accompanied by Party of Military Men, Lands at Victoria.

EN ROUTE TO JAMESTOWN

WILL SPEND ABOUT A MONTH HERE.

Victoria, B. C., May 1.—General Kuroki, wearing khaki uniform and the sword of the order of Pawlonia, accompanied by a representative party of Japanese military men, arrived here at 5 p. m. on board the steamer Aki Maru on their way to the Jamestown exhibition. They will leave for Seattle in the morning, arriving there at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

The party includes General Y. Miyoshi, commanding the Fifth (Hiroshima) division; Major General Umezawa of the Imperial Guards; Colonel M. Ohta of artillery; Major Yoshida, Captain Marquis T. Suigo, Captain S. Tanaka, Paymaster Kobayashi, Lieutenant Colonel Nagayama, Surgeon Tanaka and some petty officers and privates.

All wore khaki uniforms, the officers without decoration other than the military decorations and stars. Several wore medals. A salute of seventeen guns was fired from Work Point fortifications as the steamer neared the docks, where a guard of honor presented arms. Lieutenant Governor Dunsmuir and members of the local government and delegations of visiting Japanese from Seattle and other outlying places were on the wharf.

Welcomed by Countrymen.

When the steamer docked the general and party were formally welcomed, addresses were made and a band of the Fifth regiment played the Japanese national anthem as the general and staff landed.

The Japanese colony assembled en masse and a number of Japanese children with flowers attracted the general, who spoke to the little ones and then moved to the carriage of the lieutenant governor, in which he was driven to the government buildings where he was officially welcomed.

Consul Hisamizawa of Seattle, who met the general here, had invitations from nearly every city in the province, the general and party will pass en route.

The general expects to leave again from Seattle for Japan at the end of May.

DARROW TALKS ON HAYWOOD CASE

"Down in Colorado," said Moyer, "it was the company store for everything, an enforced assessment for a company doctor in whose choice we had no voice, and pay in scrip."

Pettibone produced a copy of his reply to a letter from the San Francisco woman which discussed the question of the extent to which the foreign element in labor had created dissension, in which he said: "As to this question, I like to say that I am a descendant of John Pettibone, who settled in New England in 1632, have a revolutionary ancestor buried at White Plains."

"Haywood is of old revolutionary stock, has an ancestor buried at Mount Vernon and one of his forefathers been the declaration of independence. Moyer came from Pennsylvania Dutch and the Pennsylvania Dutch have been Americans for some time."

Ada county court house, brick and conventional in type, stands on an unfenced square of beautifully green lawn, treed in at the sidewalks.

Are Caged in Steel.

Haywood, Moyer, and Pettibone are caged in steel at night, but their days are spent in a large room with steel-barred door and windows. For two hours each day they exercise on the lawn under guard and this, they probably believe, is the medicine of their good health. A sheriff who might have been the model of the Virginian and three or four deputies, tall, like, clear-eyed chaps, men of the west, are the alternating guards. In the group on the lawn it is often difficult to distinguish the prisoners from the officials. Pettibone sits with a gleam of the horror of a farmer who mistook one of his guards for him and descended on his forefathers and depravity, they are good prisoners, said the sheriff.

The hotels of Boise are gradually filling up in anticipation of the trial. The town itself, however, shows absolutely no sign of unusual conditions other than the presence of many strangers. The people of the place seem to be almost apathetic and are not discussing the matter. Notwithstanding alarmist reports there does not appear to be the slightest reason to anticipate disturbance, in fact the citizens ridicule the suggestion.

"Martial law will not be declared in Boise unless disturbances should occur and make such a step necessary," said Governor Gooding today to the Associated Press, when shown a statement that it was his intention to place Ada county under martial law at the commencement of the trial of William D. Haywood, charged with participation in the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg. "I do not expect any such breach of the peace on the part of the people of our state and I should very deeply regret the necessity for a declaration of martial law," went on the governor. "Any statement that martial law has ever been under consideration is absolutely without foundation."

HONOR BISHOP TUTTLE

Episcopal Gathering at Boise Pays Tribute to Churchman—Old Friends There.

Boise, Ida., May 1.—The fifth annual conference of the seventh missionary department of the Episcopal church was held at St. Michael's cathedral this morning at 10 o'clock with a sermon by Bishop Tuttle and the celebration of holy communion. The afternoon session did not convene until 4:30 o'clock, when the cornerstone of the new Bishop Tuttle church house was laid and most impressive ceremonies, by the grand lodge of Masons of Idaho.

In the evening at 8:30 the Columbia theatre was filled to the doors with a throng of old friends of the venerable Bishop Tuttle, who came to listen to his greetings to those who had labored with him in the upbuilding of the church in those pioneer days of his work in the state.

The states represented are California, Washington, Oregon, Utah, Idaho, Arizona and Wyoming. Besides Bishop Tuttle these bishops are present: Fumsten of Idaho, Scadday of Oregon, Spalding of Utah, Keator of western Washington and Wells of eastern Washington. Bishop Tuttle was the pioneer bishop of Idaho, being in charge of a large diocese of which Idaho was a part in 1863.

WILL FIGHT FOR OKLAHOMA

Democrats to Make Energetic Battle in New State—Need Campaign Fund.

Washington, May 1.—"We are going to make a fight to win everything in sight in the coming election in the new state of Oklahoma next August," said Chairman James M. Griggs of the Democratic congressional committee tonight.

"The whole ticket is sure to be Democratic, but our fight will be for the legislative ticket, which will elect two United States senators and four congressmen."

"Every loyal Democrat in the country should desire and hope that the new state enter the Union as a Democratic state," he said. "I will afford him the opportunity. I hereby call on every Democrat to send a dollar subscription to the Oklahoma campaign fund, which I will turn over to the chairman of the Oklahoma Democratic state committee, and they can address their contributions either to me or to Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the committee, Washington, D. C. They will get a receipt for the same, which they can frame as a memento of Democratic success when the returns come in next August."

"Secretary Edwards has already written to every Democrat in congress asking them to contribute a number of speeches in Oklahoma this summer, and we are assured that some of our best talent will be down there when the campaign opens. What we need now is money to defray legitimate expenses, and I hope Democrats will send in their dollars."

MORE FISH CREEK FOREST

Tract of 75,000 Acres Added to Reserve—Will Protect Salina Water Supply.

(Special to The Herald.)

Washington, May 1.—A proclamation was signed by the president on April 29, by which a tract of 75,000 acres is added to the area of the Fish Lake national forest reserve in Sevier county, Utah. This addition, which consists of a strip of country along the northwestern boundary of the forest reserve, includes a portion of the water shed upon which the town of Salina depends for its municipal water supply, was made in response to a petition signed by the Salina town trustees, by quarantine physicians of Salina and of Sevier county by representatives of the Commercial club of Salina, by representatives of cattle and wool growers associations, and by many citizens of Salina and vicinity. There is a considerable amount of merchantable saw timber and great deal of juniper and pinon included in this addition. The latter species is becoming rapidly recognized as of great value for fuel and fencing.

Regulation of grazing upon this area will be of great benefit to residents of Salina in the purification of their city water supply and will at the same time end the controversy between sheep and cattle interests which has at five threatened serious consequences. The policy adopted by the forest service of regulating grazing upon areas important for forest and watershed purposes has proved very popular in Utah and has in many cases prevented the complete destruction of local interests through unrestricted grazing of transient stock. No fees will be charged for grazing upon the new addition during the coming grazing season. The Fish Lake national forest reserve is administered by Supervisor N. E. Stoll, with headquarters at Salina, Utah.

Mrs. Peter Timmons Learns That Her Young Son Is in Nevada.

The chief of police received Wednesday a communication from Edwin E. Caine, district attorney at Elko, Nev., for information as to the whereabouts of the parents of Miles Walte Timmons, 12 years old, who had run away from home. The mother of the boy, Mrs. Peter Timmons, was located last night, by The Herald and notified of the whereabouts of Miles.

Mrs. Timmons was found at 120 East First South street and is the wife of Peter Timmons, formerly a policeman, who left last month for Ely, Nev., to engage in a business there. Mrs. Timmons was overcome with joy to learn that her son was safe and had been found.

The father from Mr. Caine to the chief of police said that the boy had run away from home in San Francisco shortly after the earthquake. Mrs. Timmons corrected this, saying that the boy had been missing for some time before the earthquake, being influenced by a tough known as "Frisco," left Salt Lake and had not been heard from until last night.

Mrs. Timmons will take the boy's transportation back to Salt Lake.

KEETH'S FRENZIED FINANCE

Check Raised from $8 to $80 and Used to Purchase Fine Clothes.

Thomas Keeth was arrested Wednesday morning by Detective Shannon charged with raising the value of two checks and passing them on merchants. One check for $8 on Silver Bros. was raised to $80 and presented to Rowe & Kelley, in payment of a suit of clothes, a pair of shoes and sundries.

Keeth's purchases at Rowe & Kelley's store amounted to about $30 and the balance of the $80 check was cashed by him. Keeth had worked at Silver Bros. four days, for which service he had received $8 pay. He is said to have raised his check to $80.

Keeth visited next the cashier of Walker's bank and got a cashier's check for $1, which was changed to read $100, and presented to Merced, a Cuban restaurant for a bicycle. Payment was refused until the check could be certified. In the proceedings which followed the game was detected and Keeth arrested.

Castledale, April 28.—Emery county is to sell 25,000 acres of patented coal land at public auction on May 25 for delinquent taxes. The land was once owned by Jennings & Sharp of Salt Lake City, but owing to non-payment of taxes the property reverted to the county. The property contains about 25,000 acres of the finest coal, including coking coal, and it is expected that the sale will provoke a lively contest for the purchase of said land.

Wegland of Salt Lake, passed off, however, fully, eleven ninth grade graduates and nineteen eighth grade graduates, this beating the record of any precinct in this county ever before. INFESTED WITH CROOKS

Park City Police Worried Over Depredations of Marauders.

Park City, April 30.—There seems to be a bunch of crooks in town but all attempts on the part of the police to locate them have so far failed. Several reports have come from the residents of the town in different places that their houses have been entered or their doors tried. The officers have the matter in hand and are trying to locate the criminals, but so far have met with little success.

Public schools of Park City will close in three weeks, after one of the most successful terms in their history. There will be a graduating class both in the grade and in the high schools of 67 town. Bad condition of the roads in the hills is keeping the work back on several of the prospects which have been working here for some time. Owing to the snow in the hills and the lack of it in town the work is being delayed. There are provisions of any sort to these mines without going to a heavy expense. A few weeks more, though, will see things reversed, as the snow is going very fast now.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held tomorrow evening, and the business of the mayor and council will be handled and all the salaries paid, bills settled and the month begun with clean records.

He is being given a hearing today.

William A. Radon went to Green River, Utah, yesterday, where he goes as a dry goods and grocery store and to install a new lodge of Knights of Pythias.

TRAINED NURSE

Remarks About Nourishing Food.

"A physician's wife, gave me a package of Grape-Nuts one day, with the remark that it was sure I would find the food very beneficial, both for my own use and for my patients. I was particularly attracted to the food, as at that time the weather was very hot and I appreciated the fact that Grape-Nuts requires no cooking."

"The food was deliciously crisp, and most inviting to the appetite. After making use of it twice a day for three or four weeks, I discovered that it was a most wonderful invigorator. I used to suffer greatly from exhaustion, headaches and depression of spirits. My work had been very trying at times and indigestion had set in."

"Now I am always well and ready for any amount of work, have an abundance of active energy, cheerfulness and mental poise. I have proved to my entire satisfaction that this change has been brought about by Grape-Nuts."

"The fact that it is predigested is a very desirable feature. I have had many remarkable results in feeding Grape-Nuts to my patients, and I cannot speak too highly of the food. My friends constantly comment on the change in my appearance. I have gained weight, and I am no longer a victim of this food." "There's a Reason." Read, "The Road to Wellville," in plucks.
